		Publishing Date:	17.05.2019
		Revision Date:	25.03.2023
		Revision No:	4

AGU complies with the Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption policy of the Republic of Turkey and, therefore, condemns and shall not engage in any act of corruption and bribery. Moreover, AGU is committed to preventing bribery and will not tolerate bribery or other improper conduct, both inside Turkey and abroad, by employees, other individuals, or organizations who perform services for AGU.

Because AGU does not tolerate bribery or corruption, all members of staff, students, employees, vendors, and visitors must adhere strictly to Turkish legislation concerning bribery and corruption and follow the policy designed by the AGU. This means staff, students, employees, vendors, and visitors must not offer, promise, or pay bribes, and they must not request or receive bribes.

The policy applies to all activities of the AGU, whether related to its research, education, or commercial, and disciplinary action will be taken by the AGU for those who do not obey this policy.
