1. Purpose

Abdullah Gül University (AGU) is committed to providing equal access and opportunities for all qualified individuals, ensuring that no applicant faces discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or any other legally protected characteristic. This policy supports AGU’s mission to foster an inclusive educational environment that champions diversity, inclusion, and equal opportunity for all.

2. Admissions Criteria and Process

AGU evaluates all applicants based on objective criteria, including academic qualifications, achievements, and their potential to contribute to our vibrant educational community. Admissions decisions are made without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or any other protected characteristic.

The application process is designed to be transparent, accessible, and free from bias or discriminatory practices. AGU ensures that all applicants are reviewed based on merit-based factors such as academic records, standardized test scores, letters of recommendation, and personal statements, supporting fair access to higher education and promoting economic inclusion.

3. Outreach and Recruitment

AGU is dedicated to reaching diverse communities and engaging individuals from various backgrounds in our application process. Recruitment materials, such as brochures, websites, and promotional resources, reflect AGU’s commitment to diversity and non-discrimination, highlighting the university’s inclusive policies and equal opportunities.

4. Financial Aid and Scholarships

AGU administers financial aid and scholarships without discrimination, ensuring these opportunities are accessible to students of all socio-economic backgrounds. Financial aid decisions are based solely on financial need and merit, supporting students who may face economic barriers and expanding access to quality education. AGU’s financial assistance helps reduce inequalities by enabling students from disadvantaged backgrounds to pursue higher education and contribute meaningfully to society.

5. Support for Reporting Discrimination

AGU upholds a supportive environment where individuals can report any discriminatory conduct or prohibited behavior. AGU provides resources and guidance to help affected individuals understand their rights, access support services, and navigate the reporting process in a secure and confidential manner. This commitment reinforces AGU’s stance against discrimination and harassment, promoting an inclusive campus where everyone can thrive.

6. Commitment to an Inclusive Campus Environment

By implementing this Non-Discriminatory Admissions Policy, AGU fosters an environment where individuals from all backgrounds can flourish and contribute to a dynamic, equitable learning community. This policy supports AGU’s broader mission to create an inclusive campus culture that advances access to quality education and promotes a more equitable society.
